Padua Village has become a model for quality long term residential care for individuals with intellectual/developmental disabilities, providing services and opportunities for its residents that far exceed industry standards in residential care. Casa Colina is committed to providing the highest level of care and continues to provide an enriching residential environment for the residents. We are grateful for your support of Casa Colina which has enabled us over the last 30 years to continue with our mission to provide this high level of care, making a significant difference in the lives of the residents of Padua Village.

Please know your tax deductible contribution will go directly to the Padua Village program and will help support the twenty-four hour care in which residents are provided activities that promote community integration, the pursuit of individualized goals, and well aging.

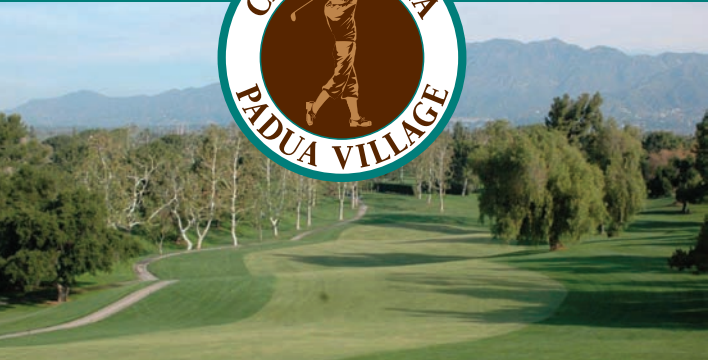

Looking forward to seeing you there,

PLEASE JOIN US

Casa Colina Invitational Golf Tournament Supporting Padua Village

Please join us for the 2013 Casa Colina Invitational supporting the Padua Village Homes. This will be a one of a kind golf event in which up to thirty foursomes will enjoy a casual day of great food, golf, and an after-golf reception that will allow everyone the opportunity to renew acquaintances and share stories of the day. No raffles or silent auction items, just one special opportunity to bid on the LEXUS CHAMPIONS FOR CHARITY NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP. Simply, we ask you to join us for a great day of golf knowing that your participation will support one of Casa Colina's signature programs, the Padua Village Homes.

There is a $5,000 buy-in per foursome for this special tournament. Each foursome will be treated to a brunch before play, snacks on the field, and a hosted cocktail party at Red Hill Country Club. The group will receive a personalized commemorative brick which will be placed on the Casa Colina campus as well as a voucher for four people to enjoy a second day of golf on a premier Southern California golf course.

If you are not able to join us for golf but would like to support Casa Colina's Padua Village program there are additional sponsorship opportunities available. We welcome and encourage your participation and we guarantee a memorable day.

With warmest regards,

Felice L. Loverso, Ph.D.
