

Transitional Living Center - Home & Community Client Demographics and Outcomes 2020*

Clients who participate in the TLC Home and Community Program have successful outcomes.

- 75% of clients are still living at home 12 months following discharge from the TLC
- 75% of clients have not been re-hospitalized since discharge from the TLC
- 100% of clients report that their physical abilities were maintained or improved when asked 12 months following discharge
- 100% of clients report that their cognitive abilities were maintained or improved when asked 12 months following discharge
- 100% of clients report communication abilities were the same or improved 12 months following discharge
- 100% of clients report emotional and behavioral control was the same or improved 12 months following discharge
- 100% of eligible clients report that they have returned to work or school 12 months following discharge

TLC clients are satisfied with the care they received.

- 100% of clients stated they would return to the Home & Community Program if they needed help again

*Based on 2015-2020 12-month follow up

